Andrew's story.

I am a boy. I am nine years old. In summer I live on the grandpa's farm together with my mum and dad. My grandpa is brave. My dad is strong. And my mum is nice. My dog Blackie likes to live on the farm with me. He can run and jump in the garden and in the forest. We often walk to the forest with Blackie.

One day we see a strange clock in the forest. It looks like a man with long hands. The long hands catch me. And the clock says: "What's your name?" I answer: "My name is Andrew."

Clock: -Are you a pupil?

Andrew: -Yes, I am. I am a pupil.

Clock: - When do you get up?

Andrew: -I get up at seven o'clock.

Clock: - What do you wash in the morning?

Andrew: - I wash my hands, face and ears. And I clean my teeth. Then I have my breakfast and at eight am I go to school.

Clock: - Look! What's the time?

Andrew: - It's half past eight am.

Clock: -Why are you not at school?

Andrew: - But it is summer. We don't go to school in June, July and August.

Clock: - What do you usually do in summer?

Andrew: - I live on the farm. I go to the forest, bike, play with my dog and swim in the river.

Clock: - Do you help your grandpa on the farm?

Andrew:- Yes, I do. I help to clean the rooms and water the flowers in the garden.

Clock: - Oh, you are a good boy!

Is this story true? Oh, no! Andrew likes to tell fairy tales.
